BULLETIN PUBLISHING COMPANY. S. P. PARRINGTON Editor SANIEL LOGAN City Editor

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 4, 1899.

If, as the official organ intimates, the list of local candidates for the governorship is growing apace, we can begin to form some estimate of the long list of candidates from the mainland that will receive the consideration of the President.

Minister King is unquestionably right in holding that the agreements of sale made by the Hawaiian Government previous to July 7, 1898, will not be disturbed by the President's land torder. The publication by a contemporary of a list of purchasers receiving guarantees of title previous to annexation, as among those subject to the order, simply shows the readiness of the organs

Should Hon. Sam Parker become a candidate for governortreatment he and his people will gress. receive from the official circle. "Hawaii for the Hawaiians" is the cry of this official circle, but immediately a Hawaiian trespasses on the official preserve, "the offices for for ourselves," the official organ places the Hawaiian as corrupt, irresponsible and incapable.

DAWADIANS AT PARIS,

Determination on the part of the business men to cooperate with the government in a creditable exhibit for Hawaii at the Paris Exposition is worthy every assistance the people can give. The funds appropriated by the threatening life and limb. Chamber of Commerce and Plan-Hawaii's commercial and educa tional development.

in whose hands the power rests tures. will not forget that the native Hawaiian is a factor worthy of recognition. Not only is he worthy, but his social and financial position in the territory demands that he should be given more than passing consideration.

If he can be prevailed a cept the position, W. G. Irwin is the man of all others to act as is the man of all others to act as Commiss; oper. No one has been 1-3 Off on more intimately associated with the material development of the territory or is better able to uphold the social dignity of the position. It is to be hoped bowever that some representative of the Hawaiian race may be named Sheet for the secretaryship.

The native Hawaiian citizen should be given a more dignified standing at Paris than is to be found in the "Hawaiian Village" which is simply a relic of the past and a very poor relic at that. Grass huts, poi esters, hula dancers and kindred features of the side show serves only to misrepresent the Hawaiian of today and place him before the public, where he does not belong-on a footing with uncivilized aborigines of the South Seas.

Give the Hawaiian the representation to which he has a right.

LAND ORDER INFORMATION,

The first charge made by the organs of Hawaii's officials against the President's land order was that the Washington authorities had been "misinformed."

The publication of the Atterney General's opinion, reluctant putlication on the part of the officials though it was, gives this charge taneously with the defense of the officiale, a place as mighty interesting reading.

The "information" on which the Attorney General based his opinion was simply the fact that the Hawaiian Government contemplated selling public land. We If, as the official organ inti- do not believe the officials or mater, the list of local candidates their organs will attempt to deny
